I see no mention of how the following will be effectively embraced:-

- Affordable housing for those on low income.
- Appropriate independent accommodation for those with a variety of disabilities – not everyone lives in group homes.
- Parking issues that will result by building a large number of flats in and around the town centre and on existing parking spaces
- How to revitalise the High Street – it is currently suffering from decay in quality shops –it is slowly turning into a haven of hairdressers, charity shops, and lower end chain restaurants. I see no attempt at upping the quality.
- How will 'Night Time Economy' be radically improved – it is a steep hill to climb from drunken gangs to a safe environment for all the family. The High Street is regarded as a 'no go' area at night.
- The report has a great deal of hyperbole and wishful thinking – I see little hard evidence on some of the claims. Whenever claims are made regarding a number of the above issues a 'get out' clause is immediately given saying why things will not happen
