DM28:- Too many sites which will lead to rubbish creating further cost to the council to clear. Also more crime will be brought into the areas as intimidation is usually suffered by locals. Why should the council be forced to pay rate payers' money to maintain too many sites (most of which are illegal).

Ref. 102:- It does not make any sense to deprive people of valuable car parking spaces. This would be another nail in the coffin of the High Street. People will drive to Lakeside etc. where parking is free anyway. The High Street at the moment appears to be doing reasonably well which what we all want to continue.
