Very Concerned over the mis interpretation that everyone has when it involves "Green Belt" Land and how when it benefits the Council, it is just easy for areas to be released. In particular my objection would be for Ingatesone Garden Centre. A thriving business that has slowly been run into the ground deliberately to accommodate 50+ plus homes on what was/is Green Belt land and yet when an individual case has been put forward for an extension to an existing dwelling or to build a Modest home on Green Belt land which is amongst Residential and Commercial Properties, this has been Declined based on the fact it is Green BELT with no further comment. This example is speaking from true experiences of people we know in the last year which just makes a mockery of the whole system. Where is the logic here?
