I

- object to
- support
- have mixed feelings about the Council's draft Local Plan.

The Council proposes to locate over one third of its new housing over the next 20 years on the edge of their borough next to Basildon, with the effect that the burden (in terms of pressure on roads etc.) will fall on the Borough of Basildon. How satisfied are you that this decision was taken for the right reasons? ?

Added to the development planned by Basildon Council, the housing and industrial developments proposed by the Council would create an almost unbroken strip of development in the Green Belt along the A127, effectively joining Basildon to Upminster. How satisfied are you that the Council is protecting the Green Belt and observing its aims?
