Comments (please use additional sheet if required):

We recall a list of potentially preferred (housing) areas for development which included parts of the area below and we support the exclusion of all of this (starting from where housing at present ends): the agricultural fields south of Hall Green Lane and Church Lane.

Our reason is the utterly unspoilt atmosphere of this whole area of arable land to the south, with such well-wooded land to the north. There is also the attractive church building and graveyard, and the pretty duck-pond of Hutton Hall. It is all good walking country.
