we live in and especially since the occupier of Hunters Green has previously been refused planning permission and lost all subsequent appeals this site should not be formalised and indeed the law should be upheld and his planing refusal should be enforced.

yours sincerely,

[redacted]